Misleading Reports. Hon. E. C. Watkins of Rockford was in the city yesterday. He says the report recently published in the more unreliable dailies concerning the Rockford mills furnishing the city with flour for the city poor, is unqualifiedly talse. The report, as published, was to the effect that the city paid $3.85 per barrel for flour that was "short weight." Mr. Watkins said ho would gladly furnish the city at $3.35 and that no flour had been sold from Rock-ford that was short in weight, because none had been sold to the city at any Want Short Engagements.

The action of the county superin-tendents of the poor in recommending tendents of the poor in recommending doing away with the contract plan of engaging a physician to care for the county poor, has occasioned some comment. The present county physician, whole term is about to expire, got but $500 for the year, and it is conceded that the county must pay more by hiring various doctors from time to time. Superintendent Mitchell was asked yesterday what the object was. He said he knew it would cost some more than at present, but he believed the county would get better service by employing a physician for three months at a time to attend to poor house patients, another to look after insane tients, another to look after insane cases, etc. The superintendents, he said, believed the patients had been as well taken care of as they could be under the contract plan, but the super-intendents should have shorter engagements with the doctors and power to revoke their appointments at any time. He said they proposed to get figures from various physicians before engaging any.

Now Living and Writing at Tarrytown, N. Y.

The Author of "Cromwell" Is Strong and Active.

Maj. Gen. Alexander Hamilton, the friend of Lincoln and Grant, is living in well carned retirement at Tarrytown-

Proud of his family, for he is the grandson of the great patriot whose name he bears, and proud of his war record, for he was a fighting artiflery officer, and was wounded at the front, he was always popular with the gov-ernment at Washington. It has been well said that his clear sense of duty well said that his clear sense of duty was never known to fail him.

General Hamilton was educated at Columbia college, and also studied for a while under Captain Kingsley at West Point. At an early age he was left the care of his family estate in New York city. At the breaking out of the war, he was actively employed in organizing
